Re: Wal-Mart Application #20051977 for an Insurance and Industrial Bank Charter

Dear Mr. Carter:

As a director of a small community bank, I can attest to the effect a Wal-Mart or Super Wal-Mart has on a rural community and county. When the Wal-Mart store opened in Celina, Ohio (our county seat), we slowly saw the decline of independent retail businesses in the downtown of Celina as well as Coldwater. A Super-Wal-Mart recently opened, replacing the old Wal-Mart and we anxiously await the decline of more independent businesses in our community.

If Wal-Mart is allowed a charter, no matter how narrowly it is defined, I see it as having a mushroom effect where eventually it will branch to stores nationwide and will undertake a broad range of banking and financial services. The impact on local, community banks will be devastating. I also feel that mixing banking and commerce is a poor public policy that could jeopardize the impartial allocation of credit and create conflicts of interest.

Our great nation has a long-standing principle of separating banking and commerce, as was reaffirmed in the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. We should not allow Wal-Mart, the world's largest commercial company, to breach this principle and threaten the stability of our economic and financial system.

Sincerely,

Floyd C. Winner
Director
